GOING TO EUROPE.

Spending the summer in Europe is becoming popular, now that it costs so little. Think of $195 covering all expenses of a trip of over six weeks; and, better still, think of living in students' quarters at Oxford or Cambridge, and enjoying English life as it really is in those grand old university towns! All this may be done if you join the Oxford and Cambridge Summer School Excursion, brief mention of which is made elsewhere in our columns. Delightful trips have been arranged to take in the most interesting points in Scotland and England, and side trips to Paris and Switzerland for those who wish to travel on the continent.

Mr. E. W. Miller of the Englewood high school, Chicago, and Professor A. H. Dundon of the New York normal school are among those who expect to accompany the party.
